

CHAP. 24. of the old road leading from New-Market to Marche's lane as runs through their farms; and a number of the citizens of said county, residing in the neighbourhood of the said petitioners, have certified that they are acquainted with the subject of the said petition, and are of opinion that the same is reasonable, and the prayer thereof ought to be granted; therefore,

A certain road authorised to be stopped up.

2. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said William Thomas and John Carvil Hynson be and they are hereby authorised to stop up so much of the old public road leading from New-Market to Marche's lane as runs through the farms of the said William Thomas and John Carvil Hynson, junior.

CHAP. XXV.

Passed Jan 25, 1805. An Act to authorise and empower the Levy Court of Baltimore County to assess and levy a sum of money for the purpose therein mentioned. Lib. TH. No. 1, fol. 25.

Preamble.

WHEREAS Nicholas Ryland, and Mary his wife, of Baltimore county, by their petition to this general assembly hath set forth, that he, the said Ryland, is now upwards of eighty-four years of age; that he has been confined to his bed for twelve years past with rheumatic pains; that his limbs are drawn up and distorted from their usual shape, insomuch that he is unable to procure a subsistence; that he devoted the early part of his life to the service of his country, during the war called Braddock's, and that he there suffered much; and that Mary Ryland, wife to the said Nicholas, is now upwards of seventy-four years of age, very infirm, and much afflicted with the palsy, and thereby rendered incapable of obtaining the smallest pittance for her support, and praying that a law may pass authorising the levy court of Baltimore county to levy a sum of money on the assessable property of said county for their support; and the same appearing reasonable, therefore,

Levy authorised for support of Nicholas and Mary Ryland.

2. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the levy court of Baltimore county shall be and are hereby directed and empowered, at their levy courts annually, so long as they shall see cause, to assess and levy on the assessable property of said county a sum of money, not exceeding sixty dollars, for the support and maintenance of the said Nicholas Ryland, and Mary Ryland his wife, and that the same be collected and paid annually by the collector or collectors of Baltimore county, agreeable to the order of the levy court aforesaid.

CHAP. XXVI.

Passed Jan 29, 1805. An Act to lay out and open a certain Road in Harford County. Lib. TH. No. 1, fol. 26.

See Nov. 1809, ch. 16, and 1810, ch. 44.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by the petition of sundry inhabitants of Harford county, that the convenience of the public would be greatly promoted by the laying out and opening the said road; therefore,

Commissioners appointed to lay out a road.

2. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That William Glenn, Shadrack Rutledge and Joshua Guyton, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners, to lay out and open a road, beginning on the main road at Matthew Wiley's mill, on Deer creek, and from thence by the widow Barret's and Andrew Turner's till it intersects the public road leading from Black Hall to Myer's
